Drugs and their effects on your life at home and work

Course Overview

This short introductory course is aimed at the teenager and young adult. Skilled and experienced former police officers deliver examples and information in a 'matter of fact' way. Typical drug offences are explained, why you can lose your license, your job, and your life. What 'tell tale signs' parents and friends should look for when people are using drugs. When available, a Psychologist practicing within the mental health field will attend and answer questions.
